

Mrs. Simon
April 20-24

Monday

Phonics focus

- Introduction of ou/ow sound using the video link included

Phonemic awareness

- Powerpoint interactive activity focusing on manipulating the vowel sound

Guided reading

- Powerpoint introduction for this week's theme: Sounds

Sight words

- Review your sight words by clicking on the link provided in the powerpoint and select SET 5!

A decorative banner at the top of the page features several tacos hanging from a string. The word "Tuesday" is written in large, colorful, stylized letters across the middle of the banner. The letters are red, orange, yellow, green, blue, purple, and pink, each with a white outline. The background of the banner is white with colorful tassels hanging from the string.

Tuesday

Sight Words

Click on the link to practice your sight words while playing boom cards

Phonics focus

Practice reading words with the ou/ow sound using the link to the Move

writing focus

Introduction of onomatopoeia with the included interactive powerpoint

Reading

Log on to the Epic! app. where a book has been assigned to you. There is a related sound activity for you on seesaw.

Sight words

Get a scratch piece of paper and pencil and then watch the sight word video and play along!

Phonics focus

Click on the link to review the /ou/ sound so you will be ready to play Whack-a-Mole assigned to you in seesaw.

Writing focus

Review of onomatopoeia by clicking on the link – pay attention to all the sound words
Complete the related seesaw activity
.

Reading strategies

The following story is from our red books at school. Read the story and see if you can find at least three examples of onomatopoeia

Sight words

Make sure you print off the page I sent with today's powerpoint link. You will play Operation Elimination with your printed sheet and the link on the following slide.

Phonics focus

Review the /ow/ song by watching the Kids vs. Phonics video clip.
Complete the seesaw activity.

Writing focus

Review onomatopoeia with the video link provided. Complete the seesaw assignment.

Reading strategies

Re-read the story and remember to look for any onomatopoeia. Click on the Kahoot! link to show me how well you can recognize sounds.

FRIDAY

Sight word assessment

After printing out the template sent to you with this powerpoint link, complete the Watch, Think, and Color

Phonics focus

Click on the link provided to show me what you know about the ou/ow to play Boom Cards.

Math review

Seesaw assignments

Friday final

Complete the seesaw activity showing me all you learned about sound this week